History: From 11/01/05 to 02/13/06 this 44 year old woman with brain cancer lived at home with her husband and two children while receiving hospice services through Sutter VNA and Hospice (out of network). A private aide attended with the patient during the day while her husband worked half days. The hospice nurse saw the patient twice a week.

02/13/06 at 9:45 am this patient expired at her home residence with her family and hospice nurse present.

Case Management Intervention:

- This writer maintained contact with the family and hospice agency. Services are provided by Sutter VNA and Hospice. Their non-contracted rate is $210 per day. A per diem rate of $175.16 (Medicare rate) was negotiated with Sutter VNA and Hospice.
- Communication was ongoing with the hospice nurse to monitor the patient's condition.

Case Management Recommendations:

- Hospice services provided by Sutter VNA and Hospice (non network); from 01/11/06-02/13/06 were medically appropriate. The negotiated rate is the Medicare rate of $175.16 per diem; to be applied to the in-network benefit.
- This writer will close this file as services are no longer indicated.

Thank you for this referral. Please contact the undersigned with any questions.
